EDITORIAL COMMENT

My kids tell me that I am rotten company at the moment, and they are probably right - I have a fierce case of post-racing syndrome (PRS), characterized by short attention span; dreamy expression; frequent comments totally irrelevant to the conversation or situation at hand, regarding possible ways to shave another half-second off my lap times; and periodic wailing cries of "I want to go RACING!" Last weekend my crew had to put up with me while I was in the grips of quite another sort of syndrome, under the influence of which I stalked about the pits muttering to myself, biting my nails, and looking for something to kick... You gotta watch out for them lady racers.

(I am not the only irascible member of my household. Our cat, Emily Cosworth, is vastly and uncomfortably pregnant, and spends most of her time lounging in the bathroom sink, trying to stay cool. When that proves futile she goes outside and looks for something to kill. We will soon have a houseful of sweet, cuddly, companionable little kittens, all as attractive and intelligent and good at catching mice as their mother... which is where the META membership comes in. Anyone wanting a little '91 Cosworth should call Olov or Danielle at 533-8851...)

Last weekend's Conference race was a roaring success: 310 entries! and great racing, AND decent weather. There were quite a few B.C. drivers there, many of whom I had not seen at S.I.R. yet this year. Specialty Engineering was well represented, and Andy Pearson must have taken the prize for most warnings from sound control. I had a wonderful time in my first full-fledged Formula Ford race, and found that on the whole those guys don't seem as crazy from behind the wheel as they do from the corners. (Dani, what are you laughing at?) I got lots of advice and encouragement from workers and other drivers, and managed to pare a few seconds off my lap times, though I'm still slow enough for a more experienced driver to offer, without fear for his finishing position, to tutor me!

There were two disappointments for us, though, one being the news that the September 28/29 race at Ephrata has been cancelled for this year, although there is still hope of beginning a tradition there next year. The second was that just as Olov took over a comfortable second place in the Formula 440 race a fuel line let go, and he ended up watching the rest of the event from Turn 2. He was relieved that it was so small a problem, especially after all the work that he and Rex had just done on the car, but it was frustrating nonetheless. We concluded that the car had been startled by the prospect of not only finishing a race but finishing second! and had been afraid of ruining its reputation. Anyway, a trophy would be just one more thing he'd have to tote to Canada.

And next up is the Vancouver Indy race! The final training and information session is to be held August 22 - details in the "Announcements" section. Note also that this month's club meeting is on Thursday August 29, same place and time as usual. And (again, details elsewhere) the next META rally will be held September 22 (not 8, as originally planned).

"We interrupt this (publication) to bring you the racing season"... unfortunately my regular columnists have been far too busy doing it to write about it, so they will rejoin us when their schedules permit!

Danielle

RACE DIARY

I M S A - PORTLAND JULY 26-28, 1991

TOLD BY THE PRESIDENT OF M E T A

Thursday 25th. Left Delta very late 8.00 p.m., heading towards Portland. Arrival time 2.00 a.m. approx at the Fetterman Lodge.

Friday 26th. 6.30 a.m. Registration at the Red Lion Inn arriving at the track by 7.30 a.m. Morning meeting and be ready for racing by 9.00 a.m. Turn 4. Great practice sessions with hot weather finishing the day by approx 5.30 p.m. Had a couple of suds then the whole Canadian gang went to dinner at the Matterhorn Restaurant. Excellent food with cheese fondue included in the price. Hit the sack by 11.00 p.m.

Saturday 27th. 6.30 a.m. breakfast at the International House of Pancakes with track meeting at 7.30 a.m. 9.00 a.m. practice sessions start with all groups. Great racing with the GTP cars qualifying one at a time. Track record broken three times, winner Intrepid built in the USA. Great eh?

4.00 p.m. the Firehawk Endurance race with a total of 51 cars on grid. Excellent racing for three hours.

7.30 p.m. Barbecue at the track - great food and fun. Hit the sack by 11.00 p.m. exhausted but happy.

Sunday 28th. 6.30 a.m. Breakfast at the I H O P arriving for the morning meeting at 8.00 a.m. 8.15 a.m. Gala Performance of the M E T A Shuffle. It got rave reviews! It was the talk of the workers all day. 9.00 a.m. racing started. Great racing throughout the day. Turn 4 workers set new high jump record when an incoming car in the Barber Saab race tried to use us as target practice however the one who jumped highest was a driver who had broken down earlier and was waiting in the turn with us. Suddenly he had a lot more respect for us turnworkers!

7.00 p.m. departure for home with dinner at Shari's at Centralia. Meet the whole Canadian gang.

9.00 p.m. Left restaurant heading homewards.

9.30 p.m. Notice META workers Mikko, Kimmo and Kevin Kochi stopped. They were witnesses to a car accident.

9.35 p.m. Got rolling again.

9.40 p.m. Hit deer on freeway near Lacey. Me, Ann and Keith shaken up but OK. 9.55 p.m. assessed damage to car. Bad news. Radiator and oil leak, left fender, hood and light badly damaged. Car not drivable. Almost hit twice by other cars swerving to avoid dead deer in middle of road. Working turns much safer than standing at side of I-5 at night. Wonderful 360 spin by one car - driver needed change of underwear but otherwise OK and left scene. 10.00 Kevin, Mikko and Kimmo stopped at our accident. Gave messages to them to inform people of our mishap.

10.05 p.m. Police arrive - very helpful. Takes details and calls for a tow truck.

10.15 p.m. Arrival of tow truck - very helpful.

10.20 Got ride in the police car, Ann and Keith in the tow truck to a motel in Lacey.

11.00 p.m. Evaluated the whole situation and made a plan of attack for the morning. Simple - call ICBC to inform them, then rent a car to take us home.

11.30 p.m. ready for a good sleep.

Monday 29th 8.00 a.m. Hit the shower. Got ready for an unforgettable Monday.

8.30 a.m. First call to ICBC. Trouble starting. Busy signal. Kept on trying.

Decided to call tow truck driver for exact location of car. Numbers he gave us not in service. Called the number of the towing company head office. Lady said she didn't have our car - try the other gas station by I-5. They didn't have our car. Help! Called first gas station again and lady asked someone else what an Eagle Talon looked like then decided they did have the car after all.

9.10 a.m. Finally got through to ICBC. They are very busy. Someone will call us back.

9.30 a.m. They called back.

9.35 a.m. Got cut off.

9.40 a.m. to 10.10 a.m. Tried phoning back. Busy.

10.11 a.m. Got through. Person who helped us gone to coffee. Please call back in 15 minutes.

10.12 a.m. Went for breakfast and also got an extension on our checkout time at the motel. We can stay to 1 p.m. no later.

10.40 a.m. to 11.25 a.m. Tried to get through to ICBC.

11.26 a.m. Got through - put on hold until 12.05 p.m. (40 minutes - long distance.) Finally got information needed.

12.15 p.m. Tried to find a rental car - no one way rentals available but one company would check with their Seatac office and we should phone back in 15 minutes. 12.30 Phoned back. Still no information - call back in another 15 minutes. 12.45 Called back - Sorry they have none.

1.00 p.m. Left motel to hunt for rental car. Motel tells us Sears is only a couple of blocks away and we can rent a car there.

1.30 p.m. Hit Sears Computer Rent a Car booth. Alright!!! Guess what - no cars.

1.35 p.m. Getting desperate.

1.40 p.m. Phone motel and ask for help in finding rental car. No luck. Suggestion - take an airporter to Seatac.

1.45 p.m. Phone airporter to pick us up at Gas station where damaged car was. Confirmed for pick up at 2.45 p.m.

1.45 p.m. to 2.00 p.m. Phone all the local cab companies to deliver us to gas station. Talk to the same lady at several different numbers. No luck - first available 2 hours. No local bus - too far away.

2.20 p.m. Getting REALLY desperate. Need to get to gas station to pick up rest of our clothes etc. in car.

2.25 p.m. Last resort - phone gas station and ask for help. Problem solved. Mechanic from gas station comes and picks us up. Guess what - no charge. Yes - very helpful.

2.45 p.m. Airporter picks us up at gas station.

2.45 p.m. to 3.45 p.m. Nice ride towards home. Discussing future plan of attack for rest of journey.

3.45 p.m. Arrive at Seatac airport. Keith notices big bus - destination Vancouver. Change of plans - lets take bus to Vancouver Approx arrival 8.00 p.m. in Richmond.

6.45 p.m. Arrive at border crossing. Get all luggage and people out and go through customs - over 40 people.

7.30 p.m. Depart towards Vancouver.

8.05 p.m. Arrival at Delta Resort in Richmond. Tired but relieved to be back home again.

8.30 p.m. Lots of messages on answering machine - Ann's boss one of them. Phone her and get **** for taking a day off without prior approval! Very inconvenient!!

8.45 p.m. Eating a great pizza at Ann's home.

On reflection, maybe the success of our META Shuffle made it all worth while!
