Mike's Ramblings:

I have a history testing question for members this month; if you have read February's Victory Lane you may have an idea of the answer. When we hear of Tonneau Cover these days we often think of a cover for a pick-up truck's bed. What was a Tonneau in older cars?

For those that missed the Banquet you missed a good time. Once again there were an endless supply of door prizes; I'm sure no one left empty handed. Thank you Bryan Nuttall for once again acquiring the door prizes, I hope you have a list of those we need to thank for their contributions. While I'm on that topic, Ian Wood of IWE supplied the wine for our tables again this year along with some of the door prizes.

I hate to admit it, however I did not recognize Rick Neyedli's brother Dennis when I first started talking to him. It wasn't until I made a comment about Brian Meakings blaming me for how he is with cars. Dennis replied "yes we all know he got that from you" that is when I started putting it together. Another face from the past that came to the banquet was Marian Cockroft, wife of the late Rodney Cockroft; it was really nice to see her. Al Ores and his ladies, representing three generations, also attended. Al was in great spirits in spite of his medical problems and Ann's cold.

I did forget to thank my fellow executive members for the support they gave me in 2008, so I would like to thank Roger Salomon, Doris Gildemeister, Tasma Wooton and Past President Ann Peters for all their help in the past year.

It would have been nice to have more old photos in the slideshow I did for the banquet, however I was limited to the photos I had available to me. If you do have some old photos of Westwood in your archives somewhere I know Tom Johnston and the rest of the Westwood50 committee would be interested in them so start digging them out.

During my research for the slide show, which unfortunately did have a few photos in the wrong date group, I came across some interesting stuff. I was going through old Maydays looking for photos and came across a few articles I had forgotten I had written and a few interesting cartoons. I later learned one of the cartoons was drawn by Brian Meakings; it was included in the slideshow.

In the April 1978 issue of the Mayday, which is available on the META web site at http://meta.bc.ca/newsletters/Vol3/Vol.3_No.7.pdf, there was a tongue-in-cheek article on the track hierarchy written by Pat Gleeson, who was vice-president of META at the time. I've reproduced the article on the next page.

At the October 27, 1977 META AGM the 1978 Executive elected was:

President: Roger Salomon, re-elected by acclamation

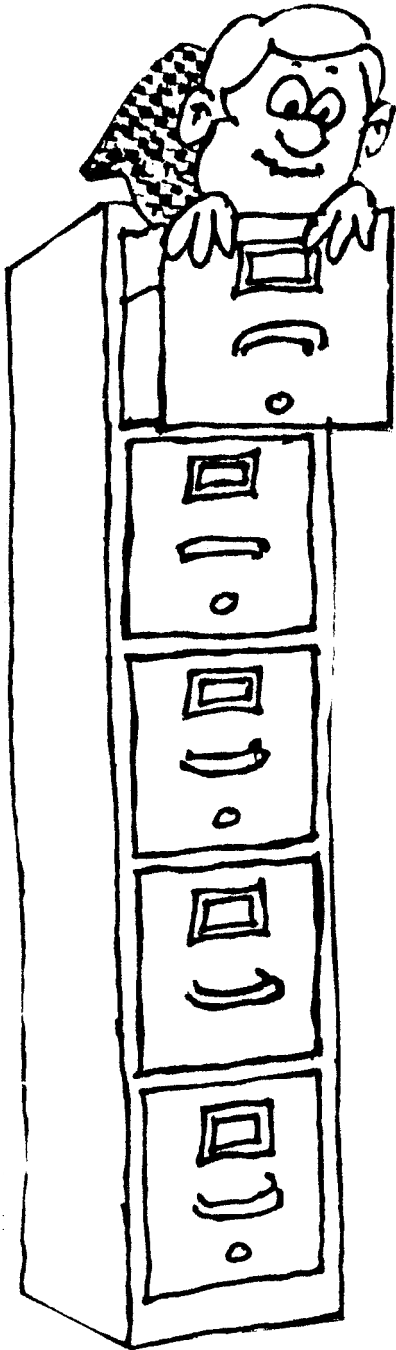

Vice President: Pat Gleeson, elected by acclamation

Sect.-Treasurer: Fran Pelletier, [tough ballot]

Robert Barg, owner of most of the cars Bryan Meakings has raced, often sends me interesting stuff on the old days of racing, this is where I got the photo of his Camero in the 1980 Trans-Am race at Westwood that was included in the slideshow. One of the photos he sent me has me thinking of ideas for next month's column, stay tuned.

Mike

THE TRACK HIERARCHY

REGISTRAR

- leaps tall buildings in a single bound
- is more powerful than a locomotive
- is faster than a speeding bullet
- walks on water
- gives policy to god

RACE CHAIRMAN

- leaps short buildings in a single bound
- is more powerful than a switch engine
- is just as fast as a speeding bullet
- walks on water if the sea is calm
- talks to God

COURSE MARSHALL

- leaps short buildings with a running start and favourable winds
- is almost as powerful as a switch engine
- walks on water in an indoor swimming pool
- talks with god if special request is approved

ASSISTANT COURSE MARSHALL

- barely clears a Quonset hut
- loses tug of war with a locomotive
- can fire a speeding bullet
- swims well
- is occasionally addressed by god

STARTER

- makes high marks on walls when trying to leap tall buildings
- is run over by locomotives
- can sometimes handle a gun without inflicting self-injury
- dog-paddles
- talks to animals

ASSISTANT STARTER

- runs into buildings
- recognizes locomotives two out of three times
- is not issued ammunition
- can stay afloat with a life jacket
- talks to walls

PRESIDENT OF SCCBC

- falls over doorstep when trying to enter buildings
- says, "look at the choo-choo!"
- wets himself with a water pistol
- plays in mud puddles
- mumbles to himself

TURN WORKER

- lifts tall buildings and walks under them
- kicks locomotives off the tracks
- catches speeding bullets in his teeth and eats them
- freezes water with a single glance

Sunday:

7:30 am – 9:30 am Registration and Tech Inspection

9:00 am - 9:20 am Enduro Practice

9:30 am - 9:50 am

10:00 am – 10:20 am

8:15 am Mandatory Drivers Meeting

(Location to be announced)

8:15 am Mandatory Crew Chiefs Meeting

(Location to be announced)

10:45 am Cars on Pre-Grid

10:55 am Pace Lap

11am – 5pm “6 Hours of Pacific Raceways”

5:15 pm Awards and BBQ

Well it's getting that time again. The sun is shining the snow is melting (and I still have a fair amount of it here), and the first race event of the season is fast approaching. March 7/8 is a driver training on Saturday with a 6 hour Enduro on Sunday. If you can help both days it would be much appreciated. With a conflicting event in Portland for this same weekend I am not expecting workers from the Portland area, so please lend a hand and come on out, bring a friend or two if you can.

Driver training is on Saturday the 7th. Registration for this event will be at the Driver Services trailer located beside the concession, near the BBQ area. Morning Meeting will be at 8:00 AM somewhere in that general area. I believe there will be lunches but it's not confirmed as of this time.

The 6 Hours of Seattle is on the 8th. Registration for this event will also be at the Driver Services trailer located beside the concession, near the BBQ area. Morning Meeting will also be at 8:00 AM in the BBQ area. Lunch will be provided for the Enduro. The days end is scheduled for 5:00 PM.

If you can, please let me know if you are coming for either day or (hopefully) both days. Hope to see a lot of you there.

Bull$%&# and Brilliance

A wealthy old lady decides to go on a photo safari in Africa taking her faithful aged poodle named Cuddles along for the company.

One day the poodle starts chasing butterflies and before long, Cuddles discovers that he's lost. Wandering about, he notices a leopard heading rapidly in his direction with the intention of having lunch.

The old poodle thinks, 'Oh, oh! I'm in deep doo-doo now!' Noticing some bones on the ground close by, he immediately settles down to chew on the bones with his back to the approaching cat. Just as the leopard is about to leap, the old poodle exclaims loudly, 'Boy, that was one delicious leopard! I wonder if there are any more around here.'

Hearing this, the young leopard halts his attack in mid-strike, a look of terror comes over him and he slinks away into the trees. 'Whew!' says the leopard, 'That was close! That old poodle nearly had me!'

Meanwhile, a monkey who had been watching the entire scene from a nearby tree figures he can put this knowledge to good use and trade it for protection from the leopard. So off he goes, but the old poodle sees him heading after the leopard with great speed, and figures that something must be up. The monkey soon catches up with the leopard, spills the beans and strikes a deal for himself with the leopard.

The young leopard is furious at being made a fool of and says, 'Here, monkey, hop on my back and see what's going to happen to that conniving canine!'

Now, the old poodle sees the leopard coming with the monkey on his back and thinks, 'What am I going to do now?', but instead of running, the dog sits down with his back to his attackers, pretending he hasn't seen them yet, and just when they get close enough to hear, the old poodle says:

'Where's that damn monkey? I sent him off an hour ago to bring me another leopard!'

Moral of this story....

Don't mess with old farts Age and treachery will always overcome youth and skill!
Bull$%&# and brilliance only come with age and experience.
